RIOTING ENDS AS DOUMERGUE TAKES OFFICE

New Cabinet May Be Selected By Tonight;
Disorders Halt

12 DIE, THOUSANDS HURT, CHECK SHOWS

Daladier's Successor Is Given Great Ovation By Crowds Today

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Feb. 8.—Premier Designate Gaston Doumergue, whose new cabinet may be formed by tonight, seemed today to have ended Paris' two days of rioting and terror.

The 71-year-old former president and France's new man-of-the-hour took only 15 minutes after his arrival today to tell President Albert LeBrun what he meant to do.

Then he immediately started to carry out his program.

On all sides it was freely admitted that France was close to civil war and revolution in the bitter fighting between rioters and mounted guards which swept Paris.

12 Dead, Thousands Hurt

Today, as re-enforced bands of laborers went to work cleaning up the debris left on last night's conflicts, the riot dead were counted at 12 and those injured and wounded in the thousands.

Edouard Daladier, who resigned as premier with his cabinet yesterday in the hope of avoiding further disorders, urged that martial law be declared in a midnight session with President LeBrun, it was learned today.

The president refused and thus the ministry's resignation was forced.

Veterans of the national union, told LeBrun Tuesday they had gone unarmed in their demonstrations against the police and troops, but threatened to resume the attack.

The cabinet's surrender appeased them.

The veterans left last night's rioting to communists and hoodlums. These groups, police were confident they could control, even if unexpected further disorders should develop.

Crowds Welcome Doumergue Doumergue, who received a tumultuous welcome from thousands when he arrived this morning, began his work of forming a so-called cabinet of premiers' at noon.

He was given the quarters at the foreign office once occupied by the beloved late Aristide Briand, many times premier of France.

There Doumergue received party leaders and the men he wanted to place in his ministry.

Wherever he passed, he was cheered wildly.

His route was veritable triumphal procession as he went from the Elysee place to make the traditional calls on the presidents of the senate and chamber.

Then he conferred with Daladier.

Order Cow Tests

SCHOOL MEASURE LOSES BY THREE VOTES IN HOUSE

Final Fate of Bill Hangs In Balance As Legislature Adjourns

LAWMAKERS DEBATE AS ISSUE LOSES

35 Republicans and Six Democrats Vote "No"; Meet Again Tuesday

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Feb. 8.—The fate of the $6,500,000 weak school district financing bill hung in the balance today, as the Ohio legislature was in adjournment until Tuesday.

Preceded by stormy debate, the bill was defeated by lack of sufficient votes, after the house inserted the McNamee rider to appropriate $2,000,000 to aid "free tuition elementary schools" by a vote of 57 to 47.

The amendment, presented by Rep. Hugh McNamee, (D), Cuyahoga, at the suggestion of Governor Whitely, would have aided parochial and other denominational schools, McNamee said.

Loses By Three Votes
A few minutes after the amendment was approved the roll was called on the entire bill and it received 65 votes against 41 who opposed it. Sixty-eight votes were necessary for passage.

The debate centered along charges of religious discrimination, with opponents asserting the state's first duty was to public schools and proponents pleading for religious tolerance.

Thirty-five Republicans and six Democrats opposed the bill. Five Republicans and 60 Democrats voted for it.

The school bill appeared clearly slated for passage until the governor sent his message and the amendment was attached.

In the debate, Rep. R. A. Pollock (R) of Stark county, attacked the aid of private or denominational schools with state's money. Rep. Kingsley A. Taft (R) of Cuyahoga county, schooled his statement, and Rep. Myron Gessman (R) of Franklin county called for McNamee to withdraw the amendment to allow passage of the Gunsett Measure.

May Reconsider Bill
After the recess was voted, it was reported that friends of the Parochial school amendment, elated by the 57 votes garnered for its aid, planned a motion to reconsider the bill next week. They said they were heartened by the statements of several rural house Republicans who said they may change their votes if sentiment "at home" proved that school aid was wanted, whether the rider were attached or not.

Meantime the senate voted 18 to 9 to approve the Boyd bill appropriating $4 a day for legislators' special session expenses. It had previously been adopted by the house.

Probe Suspended In Weirton Steel Case

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Attorney General Cummings announced today that all investigations by the department of justice in the case of the Weirton Steel company have been suspended pending the outcome of the national labor board's preparations for an election of employee representatives at the Weirton plant.

The national labor board recently turned over to the justice department all facts in the case with a view to possible prosecution of the Weirton concerns for violation of the national industrial recovery act. Since then President Roosevelt issued an executive order empowering the national labor board, in such cases, to poll employees of an enterprise to determine if a majority desire an election supervised by the board.

FEDERAL LOBBY PROBE PLANNED

Senate Leaders To Vote On CWA Bill As Inquiry Looms

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Possibility that a federal probe into alleged lobbying in connection with war department contracts would spread beyond that area was seen today as justice department agents swung afield in a while-house backed investigation.

While senate majority leaders labored to bring to a vote today the $500,000,000 civil works and relief fund bill, against which oppositionists yesterday cried "graft" and "port-barrel," main interest centered upon inquiries going forward in many sections of the capital.

New Developments
Among indicated developments were these:

Probability of a justice department search behind other contract making than that of the war department if any hint lobbyist influence is heard;

Indication that the local grand jury investigation, apparently centered upon army motorization contracts, will carry on into next week;

The subpoenaing of more automobile company representatives;

Extension of the house military investigation beyond army aviation into some of the charges now before the grand jury here;

Probable change in the navy department's system of audits as a result of the house naval committee.

Here's Solicitor's Ruling on Mayor-Council Controversy

Widespread Interest of Residents in Debate Brings Full Opinion from Lozier Caplan

Widespread interest of Salem residents in the controversy between Mayor Norman Phillips and members of city council today prompted Solicitor Lozier Caplan to submit a complete resume of his study of Ohio laws which resulted in his opinion, submitted at council's meeting Tuesday night, when he ruled lawmakers had no authority to pass an ordinance setting definite office hours for the mayor.

The ruling was submitted by the solicitor at the request of councilmen who are opposing Mayor Phillips for his retention of a job at the office of the Mullins Manufacturing corporation since he took office as mayor on January 1.

Councilmen had sought to force the mayor to remain at his office during the day.

The Ruling
Caplan's ruling follows: Can Council legally regulate the working and office hours of the Mayor?

The problem presented by your honorable council and upon which this opinion is written is indeed a novel one from the standpoint of judicial determination. After an exhaustive study, as far as I have been able to ascertain, there has not been a single case in the courts for a judicial determination of the

Weak, Exhausted, Edward G. Bremer Is Given Freedom

Ransom Is Paid, Federal Official Says; Amount Withheld

HELD PRISONER FOR 23 DAYS

Eyes Kept Taped during Entire Period; Condition Good

(By Associated Press)
ST. PAUL, Feb. 8.—Ransomed with an unannounced amount of money, Edward G. Bremer, seized by kidnapers for $200,000 Jan. 17, was at home today after a 23-day imprisonment in an unlocated hideout.

His captors, who numbered six or seven, close friends of the family said, released him near Rochester, Minn., 45 miles south of here. He was turned loose by three men in a small sedan, they said.

The 37-year-old president and owner of the Commercial State bank for whose life fears had been expressed was uninjured.

Wounds about the head, which he had suffered when spirited away by the gang, were healed, Dr. Joseph Sprafka said, though the victim was weak, exhausted, and "very, very nervous."

Dr. Sprafka was summoned soon after the son of Adolf Bremer, wealthy brewer, had returned home after being thrown out on a highway near or at Rochester, Minn., about 85 miles south of here, last night. Dr. Sprafka said a ransom had been paid but he did not know how much.

Attorney General Cummings today at Washington also said that Federal officials of Bremer was effected through payment of a ransom.

COURT UPHOLDS OHIO ANNUAL LAW

Public Works Contracts Now Can Proceed; Effects Millions

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Feb. 8.—Millions of dollars worth of public works contracts have received the "go ahead" signal from the Ohio supreme court.

While the court did not pass on the contracts themselves, it did hold the Annals bond law, under which various cities and municipalities hope to finance the projects, constitutional.

In waving aside constitutional questions laid before it by attorneys, the high tribunal held that the financing of public works projects through bonds on which principal payment redemption may be delayed five years was legal. It did rule that interest payments on bonds issued under the Annals act must be paid, however.

Under the law the city provides 70 per cent of the total cost of a project to the government's 30 per cent.

Cities To Push Ahead
Columbus was ready to go with $8,403,500 in building projects. Cleveland, if it can get its head above financial tides long enough to the extent of the expended portion of a $31,000,000 building program, Cantor's building program, may total above $1,000,000.

Neither Cincinnati nor Toledo, however, had taken advantage of the Annals law, passed last year as emergency legislation, to allow Ohio's political subdivisions to join the federal government in public works projects.

The relief for the cities lies in the fact that the Annals law postpones their liability to redeem any portion of the expenditure for five years.

The queen city could sniff imperiously at the Annals law. Under its bonding limit, Cincinnati said it bond issues to its own sinking fund and hasn't had a public bond offering in three years.

Erie county officials, apprised of the ruling, laid plans to issue $126,000 bonds to rebuild the county courthouse.

Tells Bankers

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Feb. 8.—Say, did you read what Jesse Jones, head of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., told the New York bankers' convention? Jesse told em "You boys will either start in loaning business and industry some money to operate on, or the government will do it."

Course the old bankers just got four years of good credit by everybody, for loaning too much money. Well, they got some awful nice buildings. So when a banker fails, he fails in splendor. So that's something.

CRYSTALLIZATION OF DISCONTENT

France affords other nations an opportunity to watch popular discontent from an objective viewpoint. While the fate of its government hangs in the balance, there will be a chance to observe this factors that threaten its destruction.

Clearly, the riots which have occurred in Paris represent a crystallization of discontent. Their objective is vague. Royalists are participating in the hope of restoring a monarchy. Fascists are interested in dictatorship. Communists wish to destroy the republic and to hasten the downfall of another capitalist government. Jobholders, irritated with pay cuts, want an administration that will be friendly to them. Veterans want better treatment. Taxpayers want their burdens lightened. All are participating, but each group has its separate motive.

What would happen, then, if their combined strength were to prove sufficient to paralyze the existing government—to bring about a true state of revolution? There would ensue a protracted period of unsettled conditions with each faction striving for power. In all probability, none would be successful.
There would be a reformation of republican government eventually, because there is no considerable evidence that the majority of a population that gained representative government by the sacrifice of life has tired of its bargain.

The strength of France and the foundation of the French republic are in the provinces, not in the streets and squares of Paris. Hundreds of thousands of solid proprietary citizens with no affection for royalists, fascists and communists are standing behind the principle of existing government. They will not let it be defeated by default.
Knowing its weaknesses and believing them capable of being eradicated, they will make their voting strength a stabilizing influence sooner or later.

The apparent need is for a strong leader who can crystallize support for republicanism with the same success that a handful of disunited agitators have been able to crystallize discontent. No man capable of doing the job is in sight yet, but circumstances manufacture leadership. In the United States, circumstances created the leadership of Franklin D. Roosevelt, who may have prevented scenes in Washington like those which are being reacted in Paris. Great Britain, on the verge of trouble, is looking for a comparable figure. Germany thinks it has found a capable leader in the person of Adolf Hitler. Italy has placed dependence in Benito Mussolini.

Each great nation, big or little, has had its own crystallization of discontent in varying degrees during the last few years. France is not unique, therefore. A watching world waits anxiously for the first sign of the outcome. Republican government is threatened, but it seems too firmly rooted in the French republic to be overthrown.

FOR DEAR OLD RUSSIA

The competitive spirit—specifically, the will to make communism triumph over capitalism—is waivered and cultivated assiduously by the little band of individuals who have Russian destiny in tow. An interesting little blossom soon is to make its appearance.

It will be the special project of the supreme council of physical culture. One enthusiast is reported to have made this stirring statement:
"Henceforth athletes should keep in mind that henceforth not one international contest should end in their defeat."

Consistent with the Russian policy of inveigling capitalism to sell its experience to hasten its downfall at the hands of hopeful communists, the supreme council is going into the market for foreign experts in athletics. American coaches who feel their grip loosening should be interested in this news.

Even golf, once considered the most hateful pursuit of the despised bourgeoisie, is to be cultivated. Perhaps 10 years of intensive cultivation will produce a world champion who learned to drive in the foothills of the Odonsk mountains and whose putting patience was developed in soviet conferences.

The idea sounds great. It carries a joker for the communists, though.
Haven't the Olympic games taught them that good will flourishes among sportsmen, regardless of politics? When a 10-foot putt is the issue all men become comrades.
Communists become capitalists as easily as capitalists become communists.

FLEXIBLE DATE
President Roosevelt has made it known at the White House that the civil works program will be continued beyond May 1 if conditions at that time warrant continuation.
This should clear up definitely all doubts of the President's intentions in this matter.

The gates have been let down to permit CWA spending. They can be put up again only by congress-sional action. On the mere hint that the President wanted them put up by the first of May, congressmen gave an impressive exhibition of their opposition.

No one knows when or where CWA will stop. Like every other spending agency of government, it has within it the power to perpetuate itself as long as money can be found for its sustenance.

OUR READERS

MONEY CHANGES

Editor, The News:
In my letter of the 6th I made the statement that 20 millions of money would be looking for investment. That should have been 20 billions. (The layman is not accustomed to writing billions.)

Another thought occurs to me in this line. If Mr. President is really sincere in what he says concerning the money changes, (and since the passage of the gold legislation one may be pardoned for having some doubts), would not the best way to trim their wings be to call in all of the interest-bearing obligations of the government and pay them in currency, instead of you place under the emergency act with the provision that 600 million of the currency be retired from circulation yearly until the volume of currency were again at a normal level.

The 600 million would be about the same as the interest payments now being made on the bonds.

Yes, the congress will throw up its hands in horror at such a suggestion, and cry—flat money, printing press money, etc. but there is no occasion for alarm for the bonds are no different from the money, except the interest clause and one is due at a certain date whereas the other passes current and is accepted in payment for the bonds. And insofar as our credit is concerned it should be improved because an obligation of 600 millions yearly has been eliminated.

Lack of Vitamin A Affects Eyes

A correspondent wishes to know what doctors call "conjunctivitis".

There are little lumps under the upper eyelids, she says. The vision is not affected, but she is annoyed "by tiny,
curling lines,
springing out of and floating before the eyes."

The latter
symptom is due,
I judge, to the presence of bits
of mucus, running down over the front surfaces of the eyeballs.

In conjunctivitis there is always more or less discharge and it is natural that it would affect the vision, as soapy water running down the spectacles lenses would interfere momentarily with the sight.

The inner surfaces of the eyelids and the white portion of the eye-ball are covered with a delicate tissue, called mucous membrane. Its purpose is to make possible free movement of the eye, without friction or discomfort. To this end there is always enough moisture to lubricate the parts and make the lids slide over the other parts easily and smoothly.

This membrane is known as the "conjunctiva." If that tissue becomes reddened, thickened and inflamed, it produces what the doctors call "conjunctivitis."

An Unbalanced Diet

There are many causes—eye strain from the need of glasses, exposure to dust and smoke, extension of occurrences of the nose and nasal sinuses. But beyond that there may be undernourishment and disturbance of the local circulation in consequence.

I do not mean necessarily that the victim isn't getting nourishing food.
But unless the diet is rich in certain vitamins the conjunctiva may suffer some sort of disturbance.

In recent years you have heard a lot about the vitamins. You know how they are given letters, A, B, C, etc.

If the system does not get enough vitamin A, it becomes liable to various infections. The eyes are especially prone to such trouble. It takes place when the deficiency in vitamin A is overcome.

There are certain foods that are rich in vitamin A. Let me name a few. The green leaves of plants contain it: lettuce, spinach, cabbage and cauliflower, as well as fully ripe to-matos, carry this vitamin, but prolonged cooking destroys it. For this reason the use of salads is particularly good.

The Assassination of a King

The most vivid assassination photograph ever made shows Mohammed Nadir Shah, King of Afghanistan, dying in the arms of a member of his staff after he had been shot in the gardens of Dilkusha Palace, Kabul, while addressing a gathering of students. The picture, made by a member of the king's entourage, reached the U. S. by secret channels.

rots, squash, yellow corn and sweet potatoes are included in the list.
Whole milk, egg yolk, cream and butter are valuable sources of vitamin A. Cod liver oil is a less attractive carrier of this element, but it might well be taken in addition to the foods I have mentioned.

Bananas, orange juice, peaches and pumpkin are worthy of mention. These may well be added to the regular diet. The chances are that the tendency to conjunctivitis will be overcome when the vitamin A intake is materially increased.

Let me warn against too much fussing with the inflamed eyes.
Wash the face and eyelids several times a day with hot water. Get all the sunlight possible and lots of fresh air. First and foremost, build up the body strength and improve the general circulation by the stimulus that comes from recreation and agreeable company.

New York

Day
by
Day
By G. O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—From a wide and well-centered exclusive residential street ruffled only by soft limestone puffs, Park Avenue in three years has become about the roughest rue in town. A victim of those sudden mass formations assaulting every lengthwise metropolitan street.

Opening of the Waldorf and the surrounding hotel boom, coupled with the flowering of many restaurants a few steps up side streets, precipitated the bedlam. It's still the swankiest boulevard but headed for the fate of Fifth, which has acquired the brass ring of commerce.

While the select clubs, such as the Racquet and Union, will likely remain on Park, many deluxe apartment spires are merely awaiting the economic pickup to be torn down for office spires. Smart shops are already niched in many buildings known only by numbers and more are flowering.

Crossing Park avenue between 5 and 7 p. m. offers the same hazards as 42d and Fifth avenues at the rush hour. Nobody knows what "the" residential street of the future will be. Many predict it will jump eastward to Third avenue, where old structures and the elevated will be razed.

Ethel Levy, returning from long exile in London to remain permanently, puffs at a mentholated imitation of a burning cigarette in a long white holder when she appears in public. It is a British disgust affected by many trying to cut down or give up cigarettes. Miss Levy, with her husband Claude Graham-White, is quartered at the Gotham and making auditions as a prelude to a national radio hook-up.

It's pleasant to see the veteran Art Young's drawings again in pages of the magazines. A lovable radical, he casts his personal fortunes with the down-trodden. Yet

Cleveland, where he has accepted a position, was honored at a dinner occasional flare in plutocratic periodicals. Scarcely a magazine—from The Masses to The New Yorker—has not presented one or more of his boldly-stroked drawings in the past 30 years.

New York's most exclusive and expensive chop suey restaurant is along Broadway's Automobile Row.
Although long established, unpretentious from the street, it rarely seems to have more than a handful of patrons. Its longevity is due to a chorus girl trade, maids who bring along wealthy admirers unmindful of the tariff. After 1 a. m., the coat room is racked with ermine coats and silk hats. Another famous Chinese caravansary is the Port Arthur, long a landmark in Chinatown and one of the few places with a dining balcony, lantern-hung, overlooking the street.

Latest in cuff links are fashioned in miniature dumbbell shapes of silk cord. They are in bright dabs of solid solid or mixed colors and the idea of ex-King Alfonso who also launched the peep of red silk handkerchief and red lapel rose with a dinner coat.

Morgan Dennis is one of America's most famous etchers of dogs.
He turns out engravings of society pooches of high pedigree. After innumerable contacts with all canine breeds, his admiration is strongest for the Scottie. He believes this species is the most loyal and tractable. His second choice is the dachshund, which is reminiscent a shop specializing solely in dachshunds has opened on 56th street.

Thingumabobs: Helen Morgan, who has quit night club work, drops in to one as a patron almost every night. Cobina Wright puffs miniature after dinner cigars in the Lillian Russell fashion. Harry Richman is regarded by Tim Pan Alley as "putter overers". Leonard Bergman has stuck pins from 29 different countries. George White goes into a tap dance every morning before breakfast. Francine Larrimore has four babies named for her. Ethel Waters now has the largest earning capacity of any actress on Broadway. And is disintegrating it in savings banks and annuities. Leonard Merrick, very shy, tried all his life to go to tea but only got to three times. He would walk away after ringing the door bell.

I nearly choked over the wheat cakes today when Frank Menke recalled one of Lord Dookstader's old ones. The drunk in the subway swaying from a strap finally lurched up to the guard and mumbled: "Where are we?" He replied:
"We are approaching 42d street."
The steward: "Never mind the details.
What city are we in?"

"Keep fit"

"...in these days of recovery... if I don't, someone else will have my job." How? "Well, I learned years ago that work... wear and tear... takes some-work indoors."

"I tore down those precious red-blood-cells faster than my good body could rebuild. A friend told me the story of that grand medicine S.S.S. Now at 4 P. M. I am fit to still 'carry on'."

If you feel weak... lack a keen appetite... or if your skin is pale... try S.S.S. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon notice a pick up in your appetite... your color and skin should improve with increased strength and energy.

S.S.S. is not just a so-called tonic but a tonic specially designed to stimulate gastric secretions, and also having the mineral elements so very, very necessary in rebuilding the oxygen-carrying hemo-globin of the blood to enable you to "carry on" without exhaustion as you should naturally. At all drug stores.

Today's Pattern

"LARGER FIGURE" MODEL IS SIMPLY MADE Pattern 1768

This is a frock for the 'net-too-slender' figure—designed with all the problems of the larger figure in mind. It avoids fussy, frilly lines that confuse the eye—instead it adopts the straight, unbelled silhouette, slenderizing seeming to suggest coat-like lines, and a softly flared collar to flatter the face. The sleeves, too, boast flares or may be worn long. A dainty print combined with a monochrome would make up beautifully in either silk or cotton. With the new illustrated instruction for your sewing guide, this frock can be made easily and quickly.

Pattern 1768 is available in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 3 7/8 yards 35 inch fabric and 1 yard contrasting.

A Review of the Day's News

By Arthur Brisbane

PARIS MOBS continued rioting and France again changed her government. Gaston Doumergue, formerly French president, 71 years old, undertakes the task of managing France under difficulties. France was much to old men, and fortunately for her, Frenchmen retain mental and physical vigor late in life.

Foch, Joffre, and the great Clemenceau, worth all the others put together, were old.

THE Paris riots represent a combined effort of Communists and Royalists, and the Communists, if they succeeded would decapitate the Royalists, and the Royalists would do as much for the Communists if the Royalists succeeded.

IT should make the Duc de Guise, who thinks he ought to be king of France, rather thoughtful, when he observes the rioting in the Place de la Concorde. It was on that fine square that the futile Louis XVI was guillotined, not so long ago.

Any pretender who imagines that he can become king of France and hold his throne for any length of time does not know the French people.

THE Duc de Guise, who calls himself "the heir of France" who in 1600 years made France, should remember that the French people had also something to do with making France. It wasn't all done by kings. Also it took the French people a good deal less than 60 seconds to get rid of the kings that made France.

WE don't yet know, in this country that our dollar is worth only 59 cents. The gold franc, worth about 3.80 cents when the dollar was a gold dollar, is worth today 637 cents in paper dollars.

Something frightened our speculative gentlemen in Wall Street yesterday and stocks dropped rather violently. They will go back again.

The cheaper dollar means a better price for stocks, real estate and everything else, with real value. While the dollar changes its value by fiat the other things do not change their value.

PORTERVILLE, Cal.—Just call Frank Owen, 35, Porterville district rancher, "sooty." A six-ton tractor, which started rolling while Owen was uncranking it, passed over his chest. He was injured only slightly.

WEST CHOP, Mass.—Joseph Perry and Henry Cuir saw what they believed to be a sea gull off the shore of this small Martha's Vineyard town but after investigation found it was a white seal weighing about 75 pounds. They caught it and received a $2 bounty.

NERVES UNSTRUNG?
Mr. Charles Enders, Box 375, Monroeville, Ohio, said: "I had dizzy spells and headaches, my nerves were unstrung. I was sleepless and felt tired out. Dr. Foster's Golden Medical Discovery took effect almost immediately. The first bottle proved that I had started with the right tonic. I soon grew stronger, was getting my proper rest at night, my appetite was renewed, and I had no more dizzy spells or nervous headaches." New size, tablets 10 cts., liquid $1.00.

EAST GRINSTEAD, Sussex. She had been dead for some days. Her airless dog was stretched out on the floor beside her. He had died of starvation while guarding his mistress' body.

Whose Fault?

When a Child Won't Study

"Kept after school!" And it isn't the child's fault, or the teacher's. His mother is to blame. How can a boy get his lessons when his senses are dulled day after day by dosing with sickening purgatives? When a child's bowels are stagnant they need help, of course. But not some drastic drug to upset the stomach, perhaps weaken the entire system, or form the laxative habit. On the right, parents will find a pure California Syrup of Figs—happy solution of this problem! Be sure bottle says "California."

McCarthy Looks To Rookies To Aid Yanks In 1934 Season

NEW INFIELDER NEEDED; DENIES APPLING RUMOR

N. York Leader Predicts Athletics Will Be In Thick of Title Race

By LEO H. PETERSEN, United Press Staff Correspondent
BUFFALO N. Y., Feb. 8.—Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees, is counting on three rookies to round out his 1934 infield.

Upon returning to his home here following the major league meeting in Chicago, McCarthy revealed that he was banking upon Red Rolfe, crack Newark shortstop; Jack Salzgaver, Newark third baseman, and Don Heffner, second baseman purchased from Baltimore, to measure up to big league caliber.

Gehrig Fixture
Lou Gehrig, of course, is a fixture at first base, but McCarthy is certain that Rolfe will win the shortstop berth. Salzgaver will have to beat out Frank Corbett and Lynn Lary for the third base position, while Heffner will have to argue it out with Tony Lazzeri.

McCarthy denied that the Yankees ever were in the market for Luke Appling, star Chicago White Sox shortstop, as reported at the major league meeting.

"The stories that we were after Appling were not true," McCarthy said. "The Yankees have plenty of infielders and there should be quite a battle for positions in St. Petersburg, Fla. next spring." The Yankees will train at St. Petersburg.

Pending Yankee Deal
The Yankee plot indicated that a deal was pending whereby he hoped to acquire either another starting pitcher or an outfielder.

Asked why he did not trading at the major league meeting, McCarthy replied:

"The Yankees won 90 games last season. We had the best ball club in the American league, barring pitching, and so why should we do much trading? Another starting pitcher and possibly an outfielder, are all we need to start the season."

"Our pitchers in 1934 will not be as bad as they were last season. Johnny Allen was ill, Charley Ruffing had a sore arm, and Lefty Gomez was in love. They'll all be better next season, and with them back in form, one more starting pitcher will give me the best twirling staff in the league."

McCarthy predicted that experts would be making a mistake in counting Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics out of the 1934 pennant race.

Ruth En Route to South
NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Carrying the weight of his 40 years rather lightly, but a bit flattened by the effects of a severe attack of flu, Babe Ruth turned his steps toward the south today.

There was a bit of difference this year in his early plans to chop old man par into little bits on the golf course, the Babe was figuring on a rest before starting his training exercises. He lost 16 pounds in a 10-day tussle with the germs and looked a bit wan.

"I'm getting on a bit, getting old," the slagger commented to reporters who went to congratulate him on his 40th birthday. And he seemed to mean it. The Babe received hundreds of congratulatory messages.

(By Associated Press)
DETROIT, Feb. 8.—Goose Goslin, the Detroit Tigers' newest slugging outfielder, will be in town today to settle the matter of a contract for the 1934 season with Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit baseball club.

Navin expressed confidence an agreement would be reached quickly with Goslin.

WILLIAMS ADDS TO CHANCES FOR BIG TEN HONORS

Barberton Star Passes 100-Mark; Sidinger In 4th Place

Should "Jumping Joe" Williams, star of the Barberton basketball quintet, experience one of his many scoring sprees in a league tilt Friday night against Massillon high, he will most likely assume the lead in the individual scoring race of the Northeastern Ohio Big Ten League.

Registering 18 points in a contest against Lorain High last week, Williams passed the century mark in points and now trails "Doc" Kelker of Dover by 13 points. Kelker has completed his athletic career at Dover High, being barred by his age. Williams has scored 42 field goals and 25 free tosses for a total of 109 points, to hold the runner-up position.

Five other players who are still in the race for the scoring honors appear to have a fine chance in reaching the century mark in points this week because they are scheduled to see action twice. They are Chovanek of Massillon, Sidinger of Salem, Reiser and Fribley of New Philadelphia and Isaac of Struthers. Chovanek is in third place with 94 points.

In registering 18 points against Lorain, Williams made the best single game mark last week. Other top marks were Miller of Dover, and Fribley of New Philadelphia, 12, and Fox of Dover, 11.

Big Ten players scoring 30 or more points to date follow:

Yarosz Admits Only One Defeat of His Career As "A Real Licking"

(By Associated Press)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 8.—Teddy Yarosz, youthful Pittsburgh battler, who many observers think ought to be middleweight champion right now, has lost only three fights out of 74, but he considers only one of his defeats a "real licking."

That, he says, as he trains to defend his Pennsylvania state title against Jimmy Smith of Philadelphia next Monday, was administered by his mother.

It seems he returned from the national amateur championships in Boston and his brother, Ed, quite a glove swinger himself, taunted Teddy for failing to win the welterweight diadem.

One "razz" led to another and so the two brothers went to the cellar to settle the matter, after about a half hour of punching the boys suddenly heard footsteps on the cellar stairs and down came Mrs. Yarosz, with a beam, with which she proceeded to give the pair a sound trouncing.

The brothers never fought again, Teddy relates.

Yarosz made one other fighting mistake. After beating Dundee in Pittsburgh and Newark, he passed up a bout with Brouillard, the Worcester, Mass. flash because the guarantee wasn't big enough.

Dundee took the fight, beat Brouillard and won the title.

After his camp with Smith Yarosz is making Dundee and the title his next goal.

Stars in Two Triangle Dramas

Doug and Mary before the break

Lady Ashley Lord Ashley

With naming of Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., in divorce petition, filed at London, by Lord Anthony Ashley, Lady Ashley is apparently revealed as the "titled English noblewoman" in whom the American star was reported interested when he separated from Mary Pickford. However, Miss Pickford mentioned no "other woman" in divorce suit she filed at Los Angeles last December. Lady Ashley, daughter of a London tavern keeper, married the English lord, heir to the conservative Earl of Shaftesbury, in 1927, after she had won stage fame as Sylvia Hawkes.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—J. N. Bozeman, Jr., is not sure just how he came to be playing billiards, but regardless of the reason, three cushion experts are picking the 27-year-old Valjejo, Calif., man as the player most likely to reach the heights achieved by such great stars as Jake Schaefer and Willie Hoppe. He believes that golf has improved his billiard playing.

"Golf teaches you concentration," Bozeman said. "It makes you keep your mind on hitting that little white ball and that is what one needs to make a success at billiards." Welker Cochran, the defending champion, who beat Bozeman out last year, taught the Valjejo player many of the finer points of the game.

As support of their contention that Bozeman is headed for the top very rapidly, the experts point to the Californian's two victories. He beat Len Kenney of Chicago in 42 innings in his first game, and last night took only 34 innings to dispose of Otto Reiser, former champion from Philadelphia.

At the start of today's play, Bozeman and Allen Hall of Chicago were tied for the lead with two victories each.

WOOSTER WINS OVER DENNISON

Western Reserve Gains Easy 79-23 Verdict Over Oberlin

(By Associated Press)

Denison University was toppled out of the select list of unbeaten Ohio conference basketball teams last night by an embattled Wooster quintet that forged into an early lead and held it to defeat Denison 42 to 26.

In the only other game of the evening, Western Reserve made a shambles of a Cleveland court with Oberlin in almost passive victim. Latest official accounts reported the final score 79 to 33 in favor of Reserve.

Two games are on tonight's card. Dayton at St. John's and Capital at Muskingum, the latter a conference tilt.

Until last night Denison had been roosting at the top of the conference heap with Akron. Denison boasted five triumphs with nary a defeat.

The story of the Reserve-Oberlin meeting is told in the fact the Wildcats had two complete teams on the floor and every one of the players scored. Wiggins, a substitute center, piled up 24 points for top scoring honors.

Montgomery-Evans Co-Star In Film Coming Friday; Clever Comedy Tonight

"FUGITIVE LOVERS" coming to the State theater Friday and Saturday brings another new idea into the producing of motion pictures for practically the entire action takes place on a large bus, bound west from New York City to Hollywood.

Robert Montgomery and Madge Evans are co-stars, this being the first starring vehicle for Miss Evans. Ted Healy and his three tooges bring their very popular brand of comedy into the film and Nat Pendleton who did so splendidly in the role of the gangster in "Penthouse" has a prominent part as "Legs", in love with Letty, the part enacted by Miss Evans.

The Plot, Briefly
Letty, a chorus girl boards the bus in New York to escape from "Legs", a bragging gangster who will scarcely let her out of his sight. "Legs" is also on the bus but Letty doesn't know it. The first night out of New York as the bus is passing through a penitentiary town there is a prison break and in the following confusion the bus is held up.

Personable young Paul Porter, leader of the break, manages to hide atop the bus under the tarpaulin covering the baggage. He breaks open a valve and changes his clothes.

Next day, Porter, a ticket and travels with the bus. He and Letty are attracted to each other much to the annoyance of "Legs". The police net is closing in all the time and Porter is under tremendous nervous tension. "Legs" becomes suspicious. Knowing he is about to be caught, Porter leaves the bus and hops a freight train. His suspicions confirmed, "Legs" tells Letty he will say nothing about the other man if she will return to New York. The girl agrees, but shifts suspicion so that the gangster is arrested.

Exciting Incident
The girl leaves for the place where Porter is hiding as a mechanic and he tells her why he is a hunted criminal. The two vow friendship and they steal the bus, held over in a small town because of a snow storm and head westward. Then something happens that even they, in the previous time they have to escape, can't go by without offering their assistance—and this incident provides some of the most exciting and unusual scenes to be seen in a long time on the screen.

This Evening's Feature
A CLEVER mix-up in names provides most of the interesting story, "His Double Life", playing this evening at the State. Lillian Ough returns to the screen in this film and she is co-starred with that capable and refreshing comedian, Roland Young.

This production presented Eddie Dowling in association with Arthur Hopkins tells of an ambitious but bashful painter who hides from all crowds. On a trip to America is mistaken for an artist.

Unusual Plot
This production presents a predicament much to be liked for as Leek (the name) he may live the sort of life he likes. Then he meets a girl with whom Leek has long pined and falls in love with her. They are married and Leek's content at last. But his funds are fast going and so he takes painting again. Through his traits his real name is discovered but not until after a lady turns declaring she is Leek's wife. So the concern of Alice.

It is a delightful and charming story, a comedy yes, but one delicate and it is found to be very different and altogether pleasing.

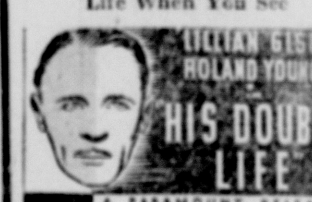

ALAMEDA, Cal.—Deke New, 21-year-old airplane designer, claims to be the national best threading title when he drew strands of thread through the eye of a No. 5 sewing needle in minutes. Just to make it hard, used No. 40 thread, when most thread is commonly used for sewing with that size of needle.
